

Despicable Me Minion Mayhem Grand Opening Publicity

Universal Orlando's all-new attraction, Despicable Me Minion Mayhem, officially opened to guests on Monday, July 2, 2012, bringing minions, mayhem and tons of laughter to Universal Studios Florida. Gru, his daughters Margo, Edith and Agnes and the mischievous minions were joined by dozens of young minion recruits to count down to the ride's official opening, which culminated in a sea of bursting yellow confetti, pyrotechnics and the hit disco tune, "Boogie Fever." Celebrity guests Miranda Cosgrove (Margo), Dana Gaier (Edith) and Elsie Fisher (Agnes), who voiced Gru's daughters in Despicable Me, also attended the festivities and experienced the new ride with the minion recruits. Despicable Me Minion Mayhem is a hilarious and heartwarming new ride that combines a new storyline, new animation, the latest 3-D technology and the heart, outrageous humor and memorable characters of the hit animated film.
